PERSONAL.

LIBERTY H. PLYTON is down with that prevalent disease, pneumonia.
MISS ANNE CLOK was a guest of the Misses Dinwiddie for several days.
We are indebted to Capt. W. P. Campbell, of the L. & N. R. R. for special favors.
MRS. WILL ROYSTON and her pretty babies, of Garrard, are with the "old folks at home."
Miss Maggie Rowland, a very handsome young lady from Danville, was a guest of Miss Susan Kent.
Miss ELLA KING returned from a pleasant visit to the Misses De Jarrette, in Richmond, yesterday.
Misses LELA and Stella Markberry, and John H. Owsley, of Lancaster, spent Sunday with the Misses Richards.
COL. THOMAS W. VARNON has returned from Louisville, looking wise, but we couldn't get any thing out of him about the Machine Shops.
MRS. SARAH J. BAILEY, daughter of Bradstock Withers, Esq., who has been visiting friends here, has returned to her home in Clarksville, Tenn.
MR. JOE H. McALLISTER has returned from Cincinnati, where he established agencies for his superior Woolen Goods manufactured at his mills in this place.
MISS JONICA STONE and Willie Tanner, of Liberty, were visiting friends here for several days. They took in the Rink and became quite skillful on the rollers.
THOMAS F. McALLISTER's school term expired last Friday. He has concluded to permanently abandon the profession and devote his energies to law.—[Anderson News.]
MR. J. S. HUGHES, of this place, was elected as one of the Directors of the Parlor Cattle Car Company, at Cincinnati the other day. The capital stock is $500,000, and he believes there's millions in the investment.
JUDITH P. HILL's vaccination took so strongly that for two or three days she looked exactly as if he had the smallpox, but he is out again and ready to try any one who acts against the peace and dignity of the city.
MR. JAMES M. WHAY, the owner of Pick Cottage, has arrived from Bloomington, Ill., with his furniture, and will take possession at once. His family will arrive in a day or two. We are glad to welcome these excellent people back to Kentucky.

LOCAL MATTERS.

FRESH Bread and Cakes at all times at Dawson Bros.
A CHOICE lot of both straight and Patent Flour at McAllister & Bright's.
GRAND Skating Tournament at the Rink Friday night. Admission 25 cents.
THE interest in the Rink is unabated. Saturday night saw another large crowd there, which seemed to more than usually enjoy itself.
THERE was nothing of importance done at the Turnpike meeting at Boone's School-house Saturday, but a very decided feeling in favor of building it was manifested.
THE heaviest of the very heavy rains that have fallen for the last forty days and forty nights, fell yesterday. Cannot our good brethren of the church unite their prayers, that the rains be stayed till next summer, when they can do some good?
MARDI GRAS.—The L. & N. began the sale of round trip tickets yesterday to New Orleans and Memphis, and will continue until February 19. Return tickets good until March 10. Fare to New Orleans and back from Stanford, $23; to Memphis, $22. Festivities begin on the 10th and end on the 22d. Mardi Gras, February 21.
TWO communications, one from Hustonville, the other from Crab Orchard, which might have fared a better fate, go to the waste-basket because no name was signed to them. No reputable paper ever publishes anonymous contributions. The name is not wanted for publication, however, but to assure the editor of its good faith.
MR. JOHN W. WALLACE has laid a brick side-walk in front of his shop, and this reminds us that two years ago the Board of Trustees ordered payments to be put on that side of the street from the end of the College lot to the railroad. That Board went out of office shortly afterwards and that was the last of it. Would it not be a good idea for the present Board to require it to be done?

WAR CLAIMS.—The Cincinnati Enquirer publishes a list of those who have recently had their claims allowed for Quartermaster and Commissary Stores taken for the use of the army during the war. The Lincoln county beneficiaries are Eddy B. Caldwell, amount of claim, $432.75; J. E. Carson, $27; James Eubank, $25; John Joslin, $417.65; Simon Peyton, $125; Wm. G. Wallace, $49.90; and Reuben Williams, $113.27. But one Casey man is on the list, J. H. Grider, and he gets $114.

IMPORTED GERMAN KRAUT at McAllister & Bright's.

THE "Big 15" have re-organized and will give a Minstrel performance before long.
SCHAFF book making is the rage among the ladies of Stanford, at present. We notice that poetry, and very bad poetry at that, predominates in the selections.
SAVE COAT.—Our business must be settled up before the quarterly Court in March. We do not want to warrant any body, but we must have our money. McAllister & Lytle.

JOHN R. J. BRIDGEMAN, of Springfield, has shipped to Jas. W. Alcorn, Esq., 6 English elm trees, which he generously donates to the improvement of Court Square. May he live to sit under their shade when they shall have assumed their largest dimensions.
SENATOR BOBBY BLAIN writes us that he will be here at March County Court, if nothing of great importance is before the Senate, when he hopes to meet all his friends. The Senator has been a most attentive and wide-awake member, and his friends feel very proud of his course as a law-maker.

SIXTY PERSONS KILLED.—Mr. S. S. Myers, who came here in 1875, informs us that he has kept a count of the murders and killings in Lincoln county since his arrival, and that the two that are chronic in this issue, make the alarming total of sixty. It is hardly necessary to comment. We must have some hangings by the law if we can, or by Judge Lynch if we cannot.

SKATING ATTENTION.—The Rink will be open from 7 to 9 p. m., Wednesday night to give those who enter for the Tournament a chance to practice. No gentlemen will be admitted unless he pays the entrance fee of 50 cents (which is to be refunded in case he contests) and no lady who does not give her solemn promise to skate for the prize offered to them. The gentlemen's prize is a $10 gold piece and is worth contending for.

THE young ladies of the College varied their Friday evening's work with songs, instrumental music, recitations and charades, and succeeded in entertaining for an hour or two a very large crowd of admiring friends. The following young ladies took part: Misses Sallie Penny, Ellen Ballou, Irwin Baker, Lettie Rochester, Bessie Bryant, Kate White, Nannie Dunn, Belle Van Arsdale, Mildred Lewis, Pattie McGee, Daisy Burnside, Kate Williams, Lela Woodbridge, Annie McKinney, Eva Smiley, Addie Peoples, Susie Root, Annie Alcorn, Belle Tyson, Annie Holmes, Jennie Crane and Madie White. The charades was in four acts and represented "Macrimony". The courting scene was very naturally given and displayed a familiarity with the subject hardly to be expected in school girls. The boys smoked their mouths as their moustached initiators slipped the nectar from their sweet hearts' lips and took a note or two as to how they should act when the momentous moment of popping the question shall arrive. The usual mingling of the young ladies in conversation with the invited gentlemen followed the performance and was heartily enjoyed by all concerned.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.—The custom of sending and drawing Valentines is a very old one, and formerly meant a great deal more than it does now. Then it was supposed that the person drawn was to be the future partner of the drawer. Some two hundred years later, the fashion or superstition changed, and it was felt the bountiful duty of the recipient of a valentine to give the sender a costly present. Now the custom has degenerated into a desire to make the receiver feel as mean as possible by sending him the most possible caricature on himself in the shape of a very badly printed wood-cut smeared in colors. Occasionally we find a lover who takes the valentine method of telling the love he dare not whisper in his innamorata's ear, and then the most costly kind of a card is sent. The custom of sending valentines has somewhat gone out of vogue here, but in the North the post officials are kept busy all day handling them. The specimens of illuminated cuts and sentimental valentines are both of a higher order of art, this year than usual, and either of our drug stores here can furnish them to you anywhere from one cent to five dollars. Then you can do for a very small outlay have a good deal of fun at somebody else's expense to-day or tell your love without the embarrassment of stammering it out.

BEYOND ENDURANCE.—We have all along, notwithstanding his continued and vexatious short comings, refrained from giving that incompetent mail manipulator, J. M. Leath, who by the grace of the notorious crank, John D. White, runs between Louisville and Livingston, that notice he so well deserves, because he seemed to be such a good hearted, good for nothing soul, that we did not have the heart to tackle him. Besides we were willing to give him a fair chance. We have given him that chance and after a month or more of service, he is even worse than he was at the start. Friday we took more than usual care in fixing up and marking the bag containing our papers for Shelby City, Gore and other points North on the Southern road, but after hauling them around, the devil knows where, and wearing nearly all the wrapper off, he returned them to the postoffice here Saturday evening. As if that could do better than this. But we do not blame the poor fellow, for he is evidently non compos mentis. It is his superiors that we blame, and for them every public man along the Knoxville branch sends up the strongest execrations. He carries more than half the mail by every day, and the people here and elsewhere, want to know what ban they are under that they should be thus afflicted. There are plenty of good men that can fill the bill, and the people along the line intend to have a change, if a petition to the Postmaster General can accomplish it. P. S.—The article has had the desired effect even before its publication. Mr. Leath, poor fellow, has been removed, and Mr. H. C. Sweeney, son of Capt. Sweeney, appointed in his stead.

TWO MURDERS.

Robbery the incentive of One, Revenge the Other.
Two more bloody murders are added to the already bloody record of Lincoln county. On Saturday night, John Shanks, a wealthy farmer, living near Crab Orchard, was shot in the head and neck with a single shot fired from a gun, while between his crib and stable, and on Sunday morning was found there cold and stiff by a servant who came to feed his stock. He gave the alarm, when neighbors came in and examined both the body and the premises. His safe keys were found in his pocket, but the safe was open and if there had been money in it, every cent was taken, neither was there money in his pocket, although he was seen with some $20 notes, while in Crab Orchard, the evening before. Mr. Shanks was an eccentric gentleman, and although possessed of some $50,000 to $60,000 lived like a miser, alone and uncared for. He has always feared that his life would be taken as it has been and has repeatedly told of robbers and others coming to his house at night, but owing to his cranky spells, his stories were not believed. At present no clue to the bloody deed has been divulged, though knowing ones look wise and confident that all will come out in a day or two. The body of the murdered man was taken to his sister's, Mrs. Sarah J. Wells, where it was properly cared for, and from whence it was taken to Crab Orchard Cemetery for interment at 3:30 yesterday evening. From Dr. J. B. Owsley, who attended the burial, we learned that Henry Johnson, the negro who found the dead body, has been arrested for the murder, there being some suspicious circumstances against him. From all that we can learn, however, these are very slight, and we trust that no poor negro will be unjustly made the scape goat of the perpetrator of the deed, as it is a former case from that end of the county.

The second murder is that of John Carr, a very industrious and worthy colored man, who was shot dead as he sat with his family, at his home on Dr. Montgomery's place. The shot was fired through the window, and at the Coroner's inquest held yesterday by Squire W. R. Carson, the following facts were elicited: His wife testified that the old man had just returned from a meeting at Turnersville, and was sitting playing with a little child, when the report was heard. He fell over and died immediately, seven buckshot having penetrated his head. Eleven more shot were found embedded in the wall on a line with the others. It was at first thought that the child was also shot, but upon examination it was found that only a piece of the broken glass had struck it. As nothing pointing to the perpetrator of the murder was adduced, the inquest adjourned until to-day, hoping to find some clue to the act.

APPLES, BANANAS, COCONUTS, ORANGES, and Lemons, just received at McAllister & Bright's.

MARRIAGES.
To-day, at 2:30 p. m., Mr. Smith Baughman, of this county, and Miss Effie J. B. Dunn, of Lancaster, will be united in marriage, attended by Mr. Sam'l Harlan and Miss Bessie Adams. After the nuptials the pair will come immediately to the groom's home in this county and settle down to a happy married life. At least that is the prospect at present, and we sincerely trust it will be realized. When he returns this evening with her all the boys will congratulate him on what he has done.

TAYLOR-SINGLETON.—W. G. Taylor, a youth of 20, who blushed clear up to the roots of his hair when he appeared in the presence of our solemn-looking County Clerk, obtained license Saturday to marry Mary Singleton, a lass of 17, on Thursday next. We happened in as the document was being made out, and advised the boy to take the advice of one who had suffered, and put the thing off as long as possible, say ten years at least, but a modest blush was the only answer, and we gave him over to his own obduracy.

DEATHS.
MOORE.—We have just learned of the death of Mr. L. A. Moore, which occurred at Cambridge, Kansas, the latter part of last month. Mr. Moore moved with his family from this county several years ago to take charge of a ranch in Kansas. The cause of the climate did not agree with him, and he was taken with the flux, which became chronic, reducing him from 250 to 150 pounds in weight, and changing him so much in appearance that he was hardly recognized when he returned here on a visit last summer. Mr. Moore was a social and popular gentleman, and his friends here will greatly regret his death.

PEAK.—Of pneumonia, on the night of the 10th, James F. Peak aged 54. Mr. Peak moved to this county several years ago from Jessamine, where he has since by his industrious and honest life won many friends. He united himself with the Christian Church before the evil days came, and went hence with the hope of the righteous. A wife and seven children running in ages from 2 to 21 years survive him, and will feel the loss of a good husband and kind father. Eld. S. H. King preached the funeral sermon at his late residence at 10 A. M. Sunday, and at 2 p. m. his remains were deposited in Buffalo Cemetery.

RELIGIOUS.
—Mr. Barnes has commenced to make inroads on the Catholics. Two men converted by Friday night's sermon.
—A revival is in progress at the First Baptist Church, Lexington, in which the pastor, Rev. Barnes, is assisted by Rev. Dr. Pettie. The results to Saturday was 50 conversions.
—A mass meeting of the ministers of the various denominations in Kentucky is to be held at Lexington, on Wednesday of next week, the 15th, to take steps concerning the whisky traffic.

—Elsewhere we give a picture of Rev. George O. Barnes made from the photograph that he looked thro' the magnifying glass at. It is unlike our idea of him but those who have seen him recently, say it is a very good likeness. Please observe those beautiful Burnside.

—The funeral of Mrs. Grimes, widow of the late Willis Grimes, was largely attended yesterday.
—The February term of the Boyle Circuit Court commences next Monday with a very light docket, so light, indeed, that the situation is becoming very grave for the talented lawyers who loaf about town wondering where the next cigar is to come from.

—The medicinal spring at the junction of Harrod's Run and Wilson's Branch, in Harrod's county, has been analyzed. Dr. Peters the celebrated chemist of Lexington, making the analysis, which is as follows: Composition in 1,000 parts of the water—Total Carbonate, 0.0298; Calcium Carbonate, 2.257; Magnesium Carbonate, 0.162; Calcium Sulphate, 0.313; Magnesium Chloride, 0.068; Potassium Sulphate, 0.067; Sodium Sulphate, 0.275; Silica, 0.071. Total, 0.3451.

REV. GEO. O. BARNES.

—Mrs. Dr. Craig, of Georgetown, leaves by her will $12,500 each to the Midway Orphan School and the Bible College at Lexington.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.
—J. N. Menefee sold to E. H. Burnside, a lot of 100 lb. shots, at 5 cents.
—Tolbert Martin sold to Shanks Spomamore 9 scrub calves for $142.50.
—Eighty acres of grass land near Richmond, rented the other day at $4.25 per acre.
—Shanks Spomamore bought of Tolbert Martin, a combined four-year-old mare for $100.
—W. H. Gentry, of Fayette, sold Saturday, eighteen head of grade Cotswold ewes at $45 per head.
—Dr. T. B. Montgomery, of this place, sold to Steve Walker, of Garrard, four thoroughbred bull calves at $50 each.
—Wm. Hubble sold to his brother Levi, of this county, one half interest in his premium Jack "Prince" for $500. He will be kept by them especially for jennets, and is held at $1,500.

ATTENTION CATTLE MEN.—Remember the sale of B. F. Hudson, two miles from Lancaster, on the Danville pike, Feb. 21st. He has for sale one pair good work mules and eight yearlings ready for work.
—The Deed Book in the County Clerk's office shows the following land conveyances since our last examination: G. W. Harris and wife, in consideration of their love and affection for them, deeded to B. F. Hiatt and wife 44 acres of land on Buck Creek, near Waynesburg, in this county. Elder W. T. Corn sold to Eugene Zimmerman, a lot of two acres in Tunnel City for $100, and James Coffey sold 12 acres Knob land, to A. G. Coffey for $25.

LINCOLN COUNTY.
Crab Orchard.
—The young people of our town "tipped the light fantastic" at the Harrod House last Friday night.
—Behind time. The machine shops would have been at Crab Orchard last week had it not been for the obstruction on the track at Stanford.
—David Payne has sold his stock of provisions and confectionaries to Kennedy & Saunders, for the sum of $13.90. Mr. Payne retiring from the business.

—We had the pleasure of being among the few who were so handsomely entertained at Mr. W. F. Kennedy's Thursday night. The supper was splendid, to say the least, and "all went merry."
—A handsome student of Georgetown, Mr. Albert Rice, spent a few days here on "business." "Be still, and hear!" Mrs. Frank Wallis is dangerously ill with neuritis of the heart. Miss Alice Jones, of Hustonville, and Miss Pattie Stephenson, of McKinney's Station, are visiting Mrs. W. T. Stephenson. Mr. Hatchinson and family, of Garrard, have been visiting Dr. Doore's family this week. Tom Carson's handsome face is seen on our streets. Willie Carson has returned from Cincinnati.

—John Shanks, an aged resident of Lincoln county, was found near his barn Sunday morning dead; murdered for his money. Mr. Shanks has lived a very singular life, preferring to be alone most all of the time. He was in town Saturday evening and reached his home, which is about three and one-half miles from here about dark. He was found with his cloak on and his saddle near, and it is supposed he was murdered Saturday night when he went to feed his horse. Mud was found on the side of the corn-crib where some one had climbed into the crib and shot him. The shot struck him near the top of the head ranging downward, mangling the cheek, and part of them lodging in his shoulder. His gun was found in the house with one barrel empty, and the supposition is that he was murdered with his own gun. The murderer realized about nine thousand dollars, which is a small compensation for the crime.
